Dear Parent / Carer and Sixth Form Student,

Sixth Form Student Identity Lanyard

I am writing to inform you that when students join our Sixth Form, they are required to wear a lanyard with a photo card to be able to identify themselves in and around School. In addition, it also provides them with exclusive access into and out of the School at lunchtime.

In order to ensure each student has their own lanyard and that it is looked after, we will require a deposit of £12.50, of which £10 will be returned to you when you leave the Sixth Form; the remaining £2.50 covers the administration fees. In the event of loss or damage to your lanyard or pass, the cost of replacement will be taken from the deposit.

Please make payment via ParentMail. Students will be required to sign for their lanyard to confirm they understand that the lanyard is exclusively for their use and they will not share or abuse access to The Buckingham School.

Should you have any questions regarding this, please email Mrs Dye, Sixth Form Study Supervisor, at adye@buckinghamschool.org

Thank you for your cooperation.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs R Beaumont
Assistant Headteacher, Curriculum & Sixth Form
