The Buckingham School is seeking to appoint a dedicated and enthusiastic Teaching Assistant who will focus on Behaviour for Learning. The successful candidate will be working to support students with special educational needs mostly, though not exclusively with social and emotional and mental health needs. We are looking for colleagues who enjoy working with young people, have a flexible and positive approach and who enjoy working as part of a team.

We are a thriving school with over 1000 students on roll, ranging from students aged 11-18.

Whilst academic achievement lies at the heart of what we do, we never forget the importance of fostering mutual respect and decency amongst our pupils. We believe that all our children have something to offer, and we are driven by a desire to find areas where each of them can excel.

We strive for “Success for All through Achievement, Challenge and Enjoyment”. We pride ourselves on our key objectives:

- A vibrant, exciting learning community
- Students develop knowledge, skills and qualities - and the qualifications – needed to thrive in life and work
- Innovation to enhance all learning opportunities
- Student ownership and responsibility
- A supportive and respectful environment
- An inclusive and proud school community
- Strong parent engagement and bond
