

UNIT TITLE – Who was the real Richard I?

| Key Words  | Definitions  |
|-------------------|---|
| Crusade           | A long and determined fight to achieve something you strongly believe in.     |
| Military          | The armed forces of a country or region.                                      |
| Intended audience | The people that are the target group the creator has produced their work for. |
| Adversary         | An enemy, or someone who is against someone else.                             |
| Coronation        | The act of crowning a monarch, usually during a ceremony.                     |
| Banquet           | A large public meal or feast, usually with lots of impressive food.           |
| Subjects          | The people living in a country or region that are ruled over by a monarch.    |
| Gallantry         | Brave behaviour, especially in battle.  |

| Dates | Key events                |
|--------------|----------------------------------|
| 1189         | Richard I became King of England |
| 1199         | Richard I died                   |

| Key individuals | Why are they important? |
|------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Richard I              | King of England from 1189-1199 |