

UNIT 4 QUESTION BANK

1) Describe the processes used for Law making	Outline the process used by the government for making laws such as The Theft Act 1968.(5)	Outline briefly the process used by the government for making laws (3)	Describe the judicial involvement in law making (4)
2) Describe the organisations in the criminal justice system	Briefly describe the role of the judge in the crown court (3)	Identify and explain two tests used by the Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) to make the decision to prosecute potential defendants.(6)	Explain the relationship between the various organisations in the criminal justice system in England and Wales. [10]	Identify two of the personnel involved in the criminal justice system that a defendant may encounter before conviction. [2]
	Describe the relationship of the prison service with other agencies in the criminal justice system (7)	Describe the relationship between the crown prosecution service and the police (5)	Describe the relationship between the various organisations in the criminal justice system (9)	Describe the relationship between the prison service and other agencies in thr CJS (7)
3) Describe models Of Criminal justice	Describe two models of criminal justice (4)
4) Explain forms of social control (internal and external) and reasons for abiding by the law (control theory)	Discuss how external forms of social control may have an impact on crime statistics. [5]	Explain why imprisonment acts as an external form of social control. [4]	Using examples, explain what is meant by internal forms of social control. [4]	Explain why people abide by the law (10)
5) Assess how forms of punishment meet the aims of punishment – imprisonment – community service – fine - discharge	Explain, giving one example, what is meant by 'retribution' as an aim of punishment. [4]	Assess how two forms of punishment meet their aims. (10)	Does a prison sentence meet the aims of punishment (6)	Is Rehabilitation achieved by formal punishment (5)
	What punishments are most successful in deterring offenders from re offending (8)
6) Explain the role of agencies in social control	Explain the role of the police in social control. (6)	Explain the role of Prisons in social control (6)	Explain the role of CPS in Social Control (4)
7) Describe the contribution of agencies in achieving social control	Explain how the Marxist theory of criminality might view the reason for erecting gated lanes to maintain property values.(5)	Assess methods of crime control, other than gated lanes, that could be used to reduce criminality in the area. [6]	Assess how the local council may evaluate if the gated lanes have been a successful method of controlling crime.	Evaluate the effectiveness of one behavioural method used by agencies to reduce crime.(7)
	Describe two environmental measures used by agencies to achieve social control. (4)	Assess the tactics used by agencies to achieve social control (10)
8) Explain the limitations of agencies in achieving social control	outline the limitations faced by the prison service in England and Wales. (5)	Discuss limitations on the police in achieving social control. [7]
9) Evaluate the effectiveness of agencies in achieving social control	Evaluate the effectiveness of social control inside prisons. [8]			