Dear Parent / Carer,

Homework Survey

As you may remember, we recently asked parents, carers, staff and students to complete a school survey on homework. It is clear that homework is a contentious issue with some really seeing the value in it and others not. Research states that homework (if completed correctly) can add up to 5 months of progress. The following link give more in depth information regarding this research: https://educationendowmentfoundation.org.uk/education-evidence/teaching-learning-toolkit/homework

Parent surveys are clear: parents want homework but not at the expense of their children's hobbies and interests and not if it provides a source of tension in the School. Staff surveys are much more polarised, with some really seeing the value of homework and others not at all. Student surveys are less positive about homework and state it is a source of tension.

We have an opportunity to use homework to further embed our strategies on improving student recall helping the students remember more. For this reason, we are relaunching our online learning platforms to make homework a more positive experience. We will provide students with a range of resources, including online learning platforms and reward those students that complete them. Details of these rewards will follow once students have been consulted. All students in our school now have access to Seneca Learning and you will also receive login information so that you can track your child's learning.

Some departments will also set homework in the usual way, through Google Classroom, giving clear and specific deadlines. However, if your child has not been set a specific piece of homework, they can chose to use Seneca instead.

In addition to Seneca, a number of subjects also have licences to other online learning platforms. Details of these online platforms and other suggested tasks can be found below. The School will publish an updated Homework Policy in time for September 2023.

If you have any questions regarding this, please do not hesitate to get in touch.

Yours faithfully,

Mr J Dunckley Assistant Headteacher – Curriculum jdunckley@buckinghamschool.org
